

HeadsUp

A COMMENTARY
ON INDUSTRY ISSUES

Confidential

CropLife members only

Federal Labor reshuffle sees new agriculture spokesperson appointed

Federal Leader of the Opposition, the Hon Anthony Albanese MP, has announced a new shadow ministry which sees the Hon Julie Collins MP move to Shadow Minister for Agriculture after her previous responsibilities as Shadow Minister for Women, and Ageing and Seniors. Ed Husic, who briefly held the portfolio following Joel Fitzgibbon's decision to leave the front bench, will now be Labor's Shadow Minister for Industry and Innovation.

Ms Collins, the Member for the electorate of Franklin in Tasmania, said she is excited to be appointed the Shadow Minister for Agriculture and looks forward to this new challenge representing a critical part of our national economy.

The Hon Richard Marles MP, Deputy Leader of the Opposition, also takes on the position of Shadow Minister for Science.

CropLife looks forward to working with these newly appointed Shadow Ministers.

Read Julie Collins MP's full statement online.

View the full Shadow Ministry online.

For more information, contact: Katherine Delbridge | 02 6273 2733 | katherine.delbridge@croplife.org.au

All previous Heads Up alerts can be found through the member section of our website.

Please note:

As an employee of one of CropLife Australia's member companies, you currently receive CropLife Australia's Heads Up, a service by CropLife Australia providing a commentary on industry issues. To unsubscribe, please send an email to: info@croplife.org.au and write 'unsubscribe Heads Up' in the subject box.

