

CropLife members' news and events

Earlier this year Syngenta held viticulture in-field demonstrations at its Learning Centres to provide networking and problem solving support within the industry. With effective and efficient disease control more important than ever, agronomists and grape growers evaluated three new fungicide innovations being launched by Syngenta this year.
syngenta.com.au

Nufarm Australia is thrilled to have been selected by WORK180 as one of Australia's top 101 workplaces for women in 2024! Being selected demonstrates a long-term commitment to gender equity and progress towards a diverse and inclusive workplace for everyone.
nufarm.com.au

With its mission Health for All, Hunger for None, Bayer is involved in a range of community programs like the Bayer Big Fish Challenge, tackling mental resilience across regional Australia, and the Red Cross Baby Hub program, providing vital education and resources for mothers and babies in the remote indigenous Galiwin'ku community in NT. Learn more via Bayer's Better Agriculture podcast.
bayer.com.au

Sumitomo sponsored the Future Orchards@ 2024 International Grower Tour of New Zealand. The tour covered both South and North islands with AgFirst consultants leading orchard walks in their home regions, while Sumitomo Australia employees had the opportunity to take the group to visit Sumitomo's trials of new apple thinning technology under development.
sumitomo-chem.com.au

Corteva Agriscience is proud to be a founding partner of a new Zero Net Emissions research centre to help Australia reduce agricultural emissions and advance the sector's reputation in sustainability. The partnership with Agriculture Cooperative Research Centre (ZNE-Ag CRC) will pursue research on input products for managing nutrition efficiency to reduce GHG emissions from fertiliser losses.
corteva.com.au

Nutrien Ag agronomists from across Southern and Central NSW recently gathered in Griffith to discuss the latest in research and technology. Nutrien agronomists are focused on adopting the right information, products, and services to improve the overall production, profitability, and sustainability on farm for growers.
nutrienagsolutions.com.au

Philstic Labels have developed an intriguing label solution. A resealable outer shell, housing a multi-page booklet all constructed with waterproof synthetic materials so important information on farm is kept safe, dry, and intact.
philstic.com.au

Over 250 growers, consultants, and agronomists attended FMC's Spray Application workshops in South Australia and Victoria. Training included strategies for safer spraying, the impact of nozzle choice, synergy with adjuvants, tips for weather monitoring, hazards posed by inversions, and regulatory compliance related to spray drift.
ag.fmc.com.au

On 1 March 2024 BASF Agricultural Solutions Australia and New Zealand celebrated its 10 year anniversary since re-entering the Australian agriculture market. In that time BASF Ag Solutions team have launched innovative products including tearless onions, hybrid canola varieties and world-first active ingredients, and continue to expand its footprint across the country.
basf.com.au

Eurofins Agrosience Services faced several challenging climatic conditions at the beginning of 2024 in northern Australia. Tropical cyclone Kirrily posed significant risk to several research studies in the region. Despite this, Eurofins has maintained high quality research outcomes for clients through the agility and effective communication of our researchers.
eurofins.com.au

ADAMA brand turns 10! Celebrating a decade since its transition from Farnoz with Identity, Culture and Global Brand. Grounded in a legacy of over 75 years, ADAMA's focus remains on farming, with a commitment to providing value and innovation for growers around the world.
adama.com/australia

Sipcam Australia has launched a new video series on YouTube to deal with important topics such as herbicide resistance, volunteer barley control, varieties, and using Aggressor herbicide successfully.
sipcam.com.au

Supporting the future of Australian agriculture, UPL Australia is excited to continue the ongoing partnership with Longerenong Agriculture College in Victoria. The Platinum sponsorship commitment commenced in 2022 and is the most direct way UPL can influence a positive outcome for the future of the Australian Agriculture workforce.
upl-ltd.com

As the demand for biosolutions continues to increase, Gowan has established the largest bio-input extraction and formulation plant in Colombia with an investment of over $6 million for production capabilities and research and development. The plant would serve as a hub for bio-rational products across 80 countries, meeting international demand for their biological portfolio.
gowanco.com